LECTORS

A Fall Workshop is being planned for those who serve as Lectors for both Weekend Mass and Daily Mass. If you are interested in learning more about serving in this ministry, watch for the training to learn what is required.

2026 Lector Workbooks with the Mass readings including guides for pronunciations will be in the Sacristy. One copy may be borrowed to prepare for the assignment and one copy will stay in the sacristies to use at each location.

A WORD FROM FATHER TOM

My Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Today's readings show two sides of witnessing to the faith. On the one hand Amos is pointed in his public criticism of the scandalous behavior of his fellow citizens. His stand will get him into serious difficulties with the authorities and, according to some traditions, will lead to his death.

St. Paul, on the other hand, wants believers to witness to their faith by the good quiet lives they lead. As a new movement he understands that more people will be attracted to it by the good example of its members. The same tension can and does exist for believers today.

There is a great need for the fearless prophetic witness which calls attention to the oppressive injustices of our time. Equally, Christians must also show by their lives that they are not simply political agitators but people committed to the values of the kingdom of God. When money becomes our master then God takes a poor second place and the consequences of that choice are everywhere to be seen.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Tom
