BISHOP PERSICO'S PRAYER FOR THE SELECTION OF THE NEW BISHOP FOR THE DIOCESE OF ERIE

O Almighty God,
Pour forth the Holy Spirit upon the Holy Father and those who assist him in the discernment of our new bishop.
May the one chosen have the strength to be a compassionate leader, who models humility and joy.
Grant him the wisdom of Solomon,
the courage of the apostles,
and the tenderness of your Son, the Good Shepherd.

We also pray for the Diocese of Erie that he is called to serve.
May we welcome him with open hearts
and work with him in a spirit of synodality,
called to listen, collaborate, and build unity.

Through the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of the Church, St. Joseph, the protector of the Church, and St. Patrick, the patron of our diocese, may we journey the path of life with an unwavering focus on the hope we have in Christ.

For he lives and reigns forever and ever.
Amen.

Imprimature, October 28, 2025
The Most Reverend Lawrence T. Persico, J.C.L.
Bishop of Erie

A WORD FROM FATHER TOM

My Dear Brothers and Sisters,

“Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to those on whom his favor rests.” These words end the gospel which we all know so well in our celebration of “Christmas”, the Mass to celebrate the arrival of the long-awaited Messiah.

But the Israelite hopes for the messiah, i.e., another savior like a King David, is celebrated by all Christians in even a fuller way: “for today in the city of David a savior has been born for you who is Messiah AND LORD.” He is more than just another king like David, but one who shares divinity with Yahweh – truly God with us, “Emmanuel.”

In our society today we celebrate this great feast as “the holidays” as we greet one another with “Have a happy holiday!” What is different in this feast is that we celebrate the love of God for us that He has sent his Son to take on our human nature in order to show us a way to salvation. In a word, we celebrate “Emmanuel” – God-with-us.

This moment of history is the ever-present form of unconditional love of God for us which we find “hidden” in the Mass. The gifts of bread and wine are presented to the priest at the beginning of the Liturgy of the Eucharist. Silently, the priest or deacon adds water to the wine with these words, “By the mystery of this water and wine may we come to share in the divinity of Christ who humbled himself to share in our humanity.” What a wonderful Christmas reflection! And it is present in every Mass now even as we remember the event of twenty centuries ago.

What does this mean to us? This moment brings the historical event we celebrate today to our present day. As we become more Christ-like we take on the role of sharing in our messiah’s mission foretold in the first reading from Isaiah: “The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light ... for the yoke that burdened them... will be burned as fuel for flames”

God’s gift to us in this love for us, this invitation to share with his Son in his mission among us “to bring good news to the poor ... new sight to the blind, to set the downtrodden free....” (Lk 4:18)

We celebrate this invitation in every Mass but it begins in the Christmas liturgy as we remember how God came among us – Emmanuel – to save us and show us the way.

Merry Christmas!

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Tom
