BISHOP PERSICO'S PRAYER FOR THE SELECTION OF THE NEW BISHOP FOR THE DIOCESE OF ERIE

O Almighty God,
Pour forth the Holy Spirit upon the Holy Father and those who assist him in the discernment of our new bishop.
May the one chosen have the strength to be a compassionate leader, who models humility and joy.
Grant him the wisdom of Solomon,
the courage of the apostles,
and the tenderness of your Son, the Good Shepherd.

We also pray for the Diocese of Erie that he is called to serve.
May we welcome him with open hearts
and work with him in a spirit of synodality,
called to listen, collaborate, and build unity.

Through the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of the Church, St. Joseph, the protector of the Church, and St. Patrick, the patron of our diocese, may we journey the path of life with an unwavering focus on the hope we have in Christ.

For he lives and reigns forever and ever.
Amen.

The Most Reverend Lawrence T. Persico, J.C.L.
Bishop of Erie

A WORD FROM FATHER TOM

My Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, traditionally called the feast of Corpus Christi. In so celebrating, we acknowledge the wonderful gift of Holy Communion and its implication for our daily nourishment by God's love in giving his Son to us and for us. This feast underscores the grand desire on the part of Jesus to remain with us even after his death to be the life-giving presence that we count on.

The very last words of St. Matthew's gospel are Jesus' compelling words, "I am with you always to the very end of the age (Mt. 28: 20)." And these words hearken back to the very beginning of Matthew's gospel, "and they will call him Immanuel – which means, 'God is with us' (Mt. 1: 23)." The implication is that God desires to be present to us permanently in the person of Jesus our Redeemer. The words imply that the life-giving presence of Jesus is the very heart of Matthew's gospel.

We experience that presence each day as we share in Holy Communion, the unique sacramental presence of Christ received as nourishment in the form of bread and wine, our spiritual food. That presence is enhanced in the daily lives of those whose baptism and communion compel them to live the Christ-life within them by going out in service to the needs of others. Christ continues to live vibrantly in the body of His Church, His people present and active in our world.

The past three Sundays have had us contemplating the presence of the Holy Spirit in the feast of Pentecost, reflecting on the reality of the Trinity and its role in our Christian lives, and now the Body of Christ as the sign of the Covenant, a new covenant, in the blood of Jesus shed for us. These are profound mysteries that express fundamental realities about how God relates to us. God cares for us, God loves us, God forgives us, God invites us into life, and God invites us to make a difference in our world! Today we are invited to see our lives modeled on Jesus' giving over of his body and blood FOR US.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Tom
