BISHOP PERSICO'S PRAYER FOR THE SELECTION OF THE NEW BISHOP FOR THE DIOCESE OF ERIE

O Almighty God,
Pour forth the Holy Spirit upon the Holy Father and those who assist him in the discernment of our new bishop.
May the one chosen have the strength to be a compassionate leader, who models humility and joy.
Grant him the wisdom of Solomon,
the courage of the apostles,
and the tenderness of your Son, the Good Shepherd.

We also pray for the Diocese of Erie that he is called to serve.
May we welcome him with open hearts
and work with him in a spirit of synodality,
called to listen, collaborate, and build unity.

Through the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of the Church, St. Joseph, the protector of the Church, and St. Patrick, the patron of our diocese, may we journey the path of life with an unwavering focus on the hope we have in Christ.

For he lives and reigns forever and ever.
Amen.

Imprimature, October 28, 2025
The Most Reverend Lawrence T. Persico, J.C.L.
Bishop of Erie

A WORD FROM FATHER TOM

My Dear, Brothers and Sisters,

I have always loved the passage where Isaiah says, “The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; upon those who dwelt in the land of gloom a light has shown.”

All of us by now are aware of the many ways in which people experience despair: personally, professionally, and politically. It can be a huge burden to be open to the pain of others in our lives, as well as the pain of all humanity. But we can take on the big task of helping to dispel the darkness with the light of Christ. In fact, we must. It is the call to discipleship for each of us who experience that light to share it in our private and public relationships with others.

Now, it is not our job to solve all those problems, but rather to shed the light of Christ on them so that people will have greater insights into all these problems. Still, sharing that light can be a daunting task at every level. But why should we be afraid? The Psalmist sings, “The Lord is my light and my salvation,” with joy, hope, and courage. The Lord is our refuge, so why should we fear? In-the-midst of a world that holds great gloom and despair, we can focus instead on the bounty of the Lord in our lives and the lives of others.

Yet, there is difficulty ahead, reminds Paul, in focusing the light of Christ. Well we know that it is so easy to take different positions in the way we think about how our problems should be solved, personally, professionally, and politically. Paul reminds us that it is not about the wisdom of human eloquence. It is about the humility of the cross.

Today in our Gospel Matthew’s focus is on what Jesus proclaimed regarding living in the Kingdom of God. Jesus was about healing diseases. In my experience, the greatest disease we have in our world today is the disease of hate. It cuts through families, communities, and nations. It has placed the world in great darkness.

Jesus understands this. He knows our darkness and how much it brings us to despair and death. He calls us to repent, or turn away, to focus away from the darkness and to focus on the light, which is the kingdom of heaven in our midst. Look for the light! In this new year, I pray that we will draw on the courage of our faith to share the Gospel light of Christ with others. We can share the good news that the kingdom of heaven is indeed at hand!

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Tom
